Newly-reactivated hospital auxiliary focuses on decor

A reactivated auxiliary at Hoopeston Community Memorial Hospital and Nursing Home wants to make nursing home life more homey for residents.

A volunteer group of employees has reestablished the auxiliary and has planned a fund raiser to purchase new blinds and valances for the north wing of the nursing home.

A soup and salad luncheon will be held from 11 a. m. to 1 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 10 at St. Anthony's parish hall. Tickets to the event at $6 an may be purchased by calling Charlene Ervin at Country

Terrace Apts., (217) 283-9215.

All proceeds from the luncheon will be used for the redecorating project.

The employee group is also looking for auxiliary members. Letters were sent to former members, requesting they rejoin the group. New members are also welcome.

Former members who received a letter are asked to respond quickly, while those interested in joining for the first time should contact Ervin at the Country Terrace number.

Radio station, newspaper plan school candidates forum

Two local news media are joining forces to bring information to voters on the Nov. 4 school board election.

WHPO radio and the Chronicle will host a candidates forum at 2 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 26 in the Hoopeston Area High School auditorium.

The forum will be broadcast live on WHPO. The program will also be taped and aired at a later date on Hoopeston Area High School's channel 41.

Burkett will question candidates; queries from audience members will also be allowed.

Eleven candidates are seeking four seats on the Hoopeston Area school board.

Four people filed for seats currently held by members Gary Miller and Mike Morris. They are Terry Beauvois, Scott Crose, Larry Lobb and Jeff Stipp.

Six candidates seek seats now held by Vickie Ellis and Jerry Bird. Candidates are John Hott, John Smiley, Patti Roberts, Duane Sheppard, Arlyn Rudin, Oscar E. "Buddy" Young and Lisa Austin.

Briefly

Rules of the Road

A Rules of the Road review course will be held from 1 to 3 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 8 at the Hoopeston municipal building. The course is free and open to the public.

Senior citizens' guides available

A "Guide to Programs and Services for Senior Citizens," published by the Illinois Secretary of State's office, is available free to senior citizens.

The booklet contains toll free phone numbers for information on health agencies, consumer issues, crisis hotlines, driving safety and insurance issues.

The booklet also includes forms for license plates, disabled plates, medical and insurance forms.

Also available is the 1997 Senior Citizen Handbook, listing information about state and federal programs, including how to receive help with property taxes.

To receive copies of either, contact state Sen. Judy Myers' offices in Danville, (217) 443-1997 or Watseka, (815) 432-2294.
